Practical Development And Implementation Approaches For Young Supply Chain Leadership & Analyst

What's CSCA?

It's the ISCEA Certified Supply Chain Analyst designation. This program is designed to make you an analyst of the end-to-end supply chain. You will learn core concepts in supply chain management, strategy, design, compliance, implementation and operations. The CSCA program will teach you how to apply what you've learned about streamlining processes and improving efficiency to your organization. A CSCA designation demonstrates your expertise.

Who gets Certified?

The ISCEA CSCA program sets the standard for supply chain management certification. Our designees are the top supply chain analyst in their profession and are dedicated to improving their field and advancing their career. CSCA designees have the skills and knowledge it takes to get noticed by their employers and outside recruiters

About ISCEA

ISCEA, The International Supply Chain Education Alliance, conducts many workshops to improve the knowledge of Manufacturing and Service industry professionals worldwide. ISCEA's mission is to be a single source for Total Supply Chain Knowledge through Education, Certification, and Recognition. ISCEA is the developer of internationally recognized certification programs of Certified Supply Chain Manager (CSCM), Certified Supply Chain Analyst (CSCA), Certified Lean Master (CLM), and Certified RFID Master (RFIDSCM). ISCEA is the governing body for the Ptak Prize. ISCEA members hold mid to upper supply chain management positions in Global 2000 companies.

ISCEA Continuing Certification Requirements

Your credentials with the ISCEA makes you an industry expert. Therefore, ISCEA requires that all its certification holders participate in continuing education to keep up with ever changing global supply chain body of knowledge and practice. You have invested time and money to obtain the ISCEA Credential. It is up to you to protect your investment by renewing your certification with ISCEA every three (3) years.

Employers: ISCEA Certified Professionals bring expert knowledge to your organization. If you are interested in checking the certification status for any of your employees, please email, the employee name and the ISCEA certification that they claim to hold to verification@iscea.net. We will check our records and send you a conformation email within 24 hours
